

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

As a media Scholar, I call on the FCC to honor your historic commitments to the public interest and localism. Consolidation does not further either of these essential elements of media regulation.